Transference Note:

Dear Mr Zuckerberg,

Considering the transformative impact effective R&D into the innovations detailed within the attached Addendum 1 can have on human life, it is crucial that the commencement of this R&D is not delayed much longer—I therefore request you to commission this R&D as soon as possible. I will continue to be available to provide further information and additional insights as may be required. And please note that I have transferred these R&D rights to you free of charge; therefore, any support you might extend to The KAG Public Interface now or in the future will be purely voluntary. Nevertheless, you will enjoy all the rights a buyer would have benefited from, including the accrual of intellectual property and the right to commercialize the R&D.

Yours faithfully,

Joseph G M K Kuria (former copyright owner & Assignor)
